Civil Action No. 09-177S

STIPULATED FINAL JUDGMENT AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION

Plaintiffs Quadriga Art, LLC (“Quadriga”) having filed a complaint with copies of artworks attached pursuant to the Copyright Act and Lanham Act against Defendant Douglas C. Hart (“Hart”), alleging that Quadriga holds copyrights in works by William Luberoff and others and alleging that Hart copied works of Luberoff owned by Quadriga, which complaint and copies constitute prima facie evidence of copyright infringement under 17 U.S.C. § 501; Hart having answered the complaint and provided Quadriga with documents and deposition testimony which confirm that Hart artistically referenced in his works the works of William Luberoff; and the Court having reviewed the complaint, answer and other pleadings, and with the assent of the parties,

IT IS THEREFORE HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Quadriga is entitled to this Stipulated Judgment and Permanent Injunction pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502(a) which shall be entered against Defendant as follows:

1. Hart is hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from copying, reproducing, publishing, offering for sale, or using in any other fashion works owned by Quadriga, including but not limited to the Quadriga works identified in the complaint, and including but not limited to the works created by Hart identified in the complaint.

2. Hart will accept service of subpoenas for testimony or documents and submit to the terms of such subpoenas, without the requirement of formal service, in any litigation that Quadriga undertakes against third parties relating to its works, including the works identified in the complaint.

3. The Court retains jurisdiction to enforce or modify this Permanent Injunction as may be appropriate.

4. In any action to enforce this Permanent Injunction, Quadriga shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs if it prevails.
